ING AS SOON AS HE BECAME SOBER.

A woman of common appearance, thirty years old who gave bee name as Mrs. May Shibley, went to Police Hearlquarters yesterday and made inquiries for her husband. Henry Frederick Shibley. She gaid that she was married to him on Friday evening last and that he disappeared on Saturday. He had been acquamted with her only two days previous to their marriage. In reply to questions, she said that her husband was a farmer of Newell, Iowa, and that he was a native of England and was thirty years old. She herself was born in Jackson, Miss., but she had lived in this city several years, supporting herself by making wax flowers. Her name before her marriage was May Evans. She boarded with a French family in Cottage-place. On Wednesday evening she met Shibley in the Atlantic Garden in the Bowery. He had arrived from Iowa only a few hours previous to the meeting and he was much under the influence of figuor. Two men, who appeared to be acquaintences, were with him. He introduced himself to her in the garden and treated her to lager-beer. When they had talked together some time, he said that he had come to New-York to meet a sister, who would arrive from Europe on a steamship of the White Star Line. Women were appreciated in lowa, he added, because they were so scarce. He had a large farm at Neweii, and was well off financially. "I never loved a woman before," he said, "but I ING AS SOON AS HE BECAME SOBER.

appreciated in lowa, he added, because they were so scarce. He had a large farm at Neweii, and was well off financially.

"I never loved a woman before," he said, "but I really do love you. I will give you $40 a month and pay your travelling expenses if you will go to lowa and be my housekeeper."

The woman said that she accepted his ofter, and they went to the rooms of Mrs. M. D. Wilson, on the top floor of the tenement-house at No. 69 James-st. Shibley knew Mrs. Wilson, and she provided a room for the woman. He drank heavily that night, and was drank on Thursday when he proposed that the Evans women should be his wife instead of his housekeeper. They went to the National Theatre in the Bowery in the evening and sat in a box. Shibley scattered silver come among the boys in the galiery and purchased schooters of beer for the orchestra. He was stal very drunk on Fraday, but he went with the woman to the mission chapel of the Five Points House of Industry at 8 p. m., where they were married by the Rev. 8. J. Furguson, Mrs. Wilson and her linsonal being witnesses of the ceremony. Shibley said that an uncle in England had died, leaving him about $200,000. He gave to his bride, for safe keeping, a large roll of bank-notes, of which four were of the denomination of $1,000 each.

Interest of which four were of the denomination of $1,000 each.

When Shibley awoke from a profound sleep on Satarday moraing, he appeared to be more sober than at any time in their acquaintance. He took his roll of bank not s, saying that he wished to get one of the $1,000 falls changed. Their marriage certificate and a wedding-ring, which he had given to his bride, he took also. The certificate lacked a date and the ring had no inscription. He promised to return both to her together with money enough to buy a wedding outfit. His wife did not see him again. It was her belief yesterday that therees had murdered him. Mrs. Wilson and the police thought that Shibley had repented of his marriage and had fled from the city. There was no information about him on the police records. When Shibley reached the city on Wednesday, he registered at the Cosmopolitan Hotel. It was said at the hotel yesterday that he was not there. The two men who were his companions at the hotel, had gone away. The record of Shibley's marriage was fired in the Burcau of Vital Statistics yesterday. His wife said that she would remain at No. 69 James-st, for the present in the hope of his return. It was possible, said that he nonced that Shibley was madering about the city intexicated. The Rev. Mr. Furguson stated that he nonced that Shibley was mader the inflaence of liquor on Friday evening, after the marriage ceremony had been performed.

REFUSING THE STEINWAYS ULTIMATUM. The uitimatum of Steinway & Sons, the punio-makers, to their workmer, was rejected yesterday and the strike continues. The men held a meeting in the morning at Fernando Hail, Fifty-fifth-st, and in the morning at Fernando Hall, Fifty-fith-st, and Third-ave,, and appointed a committee of lifteen to call upon their employers and present a communication. The letter contained the statement that, in addition to their former demand for the removal of Mr. Sohmer, the bookkeeper, the men now missical upon the discharge of all workmen who had not joined in the strike. The Steinways were found at the factory, Fifth-third st, and Foutth-ave., and to the communication they returned a written answer. They said in substance that they would accede to neither demand; that Mr. Sohmer should remain in charge at Astoria, and that they would be faithful to the men who had been faithful to them. The statement was then repeated that all men who did not return to work by 6 p.m. would cease to be in the employ of Steinway & Sons, and must remove their tools without delay.

The committee reported back to the meeting, and at 3 o clock the men sent another communication declaring that they would insist apon their demands. William Steinway said to a TRIBUNE reporter: "It is impossible for us to accede to the men's request, and we have taken steps to remove their tools forthwith. We have a right to put them on the sidewalk if we so please, but we shall place them in some public storage-room. We have consulted the best lawyers as to our right, and I guess we can stand all the law they can bring. We have slock enough for our retail trade for three months to come."

pared to fight the matter to the end, for they will be supported by all the labor organizations in the city and will not tack for funds to carry on a prolonged struggie. The men question, too, the right of the Steinways to remove their tools without first giving them thirty days' notice.

TRYING TO STOP ADULTERATIONS. Professor Chandler, president of the Board of Health, was asked yesterday by a Tribune reporter it he had ever analyzed yeast for the purpose of finding out whether or not it was adulterated. The professor, apparently somewhat amazed at the idea of that article being adulterated, replied: "No, I den't know that I have ever analyzed yeast. It never occurred to me. It would be an easy thing to analyze. There are very few manufacturers of yeast in this city. But I'll tell you what are adulterated—baking powders; and so are carbonals of yeast in this city. But I'll tell you what are adulterated—baking powders; and so are carbonate of soda and cream of tartar; the latter very extensively. Some cream of tartar is three-fourths subpliate of lime. Yeast may be adulterated, but I think not to any great extent. The State Board of Health, under the State law against adulteration is naving analyses made now with a view to prosecute the sellers of adulterated cream of tartar. We have never examined yeast, but will do so at once. You know that there are four public analysts engaged all the time injexamining drugs, kerosene and food. A VICTORY FOR MAYOR DE BEVOISE.

A VICTORY FOR MAYOR DE BEVOISE.

The Supreme Court, Circuit, Judge Gilbert presiding, reassembled at the County Court-House in Long Island City yesterday morning. There was a large attendance of spectators. The principal interest centred in the civil and criminal suits against Mayor Henry S. De Bevoise, of Long Island City, Judge Gilbert decided that the three indictments found against the Mayor by the Grand Jury were defective and ordered them to be set aside.

The civil suit begun by the Citizens' Committee against the Mayor to recover $108,000, which, it is alleged, he had appropriated to his own use, also came up. Winchester Britton, counsel for Mr. De Bevoise, asked that the case should go over for the term, owing to the sickness of Charles P. Suminer, the Mayor's accountant, and the principal witness for the defence. John E. Develin, who represented the Attorney-General, objected to any further postponement. He said that the complaint set forth that Mayor De Bevoise had sold 128 bonds belonging to the city which he had failed to account for, and which he also denied having issued. There was no desire to ask him to prove what he had dance with the proceeds of these bonds, but belonging to the city which he had failed to account for, and which he also denied having issued. There was no desire to ask him to prove what he had done with the proceeds of these bonds, but simply to show what had become of the sureties themselves. The Court decided in favor of Mr. Develin and ordered the trial to proceed at once. Upon this decision being announced, Mr. Britton became very indignant and declared that he could no longer remain in the case in the face of such an unjust decision towards his client. Judge Gribert directed the clerk to call the jury, but that officer had scarcely begun to do so when Mr. Britton rentered the case. He raised the point that according to a recent decision in this city the Attorney-General must be present in person at all trials before the Circuit. The counsel read a printed copy of the decision. Judge Gribert seemed greatly surprised at this announcement, and immediately reconsidered his former determination to try the case at once, and allowed it to go over to the January term of the Supreme Court. The announcement was received with evident satisfaction by the Mayor's friends, of whom many were m court.

DANGEROUSLY WOUNDING AN OFFICER. A baker, Jacob Pfeiffer, was a witness recently against two men, McNulry and Powers, who were enarged with robbery. While standing in the door of his store at No. 1,840 Second-ave., on Sanday hight, Pleiffer was accosted by Henry Garethy, age twenty, of Eighty-seventh-st, and Fourth ave., who after demanding his reasons for appearing against the culprits, clutched him by the throat and tried to strike him. Greichy was arrested by Roundsman. after demanding his feasons for appearing against the culprits, clutched him by the throat and tried to strike him. Garethy was arrested by Roundsman Gallagher, of the Twenty-third Precine. On the way to the police station Gallagher was attacked by a number of Garethy's friends, one of whom struck him on the head with a stone, inflicting dangerous injuries. Garethy was taken to the station by Officer Reilly, and Gallagher was removed to the Presbyterian Hospital. Later in the evening, Gallagher's supposed assailant, William Cotter, of Ninety-unith-st, and Second-ave., and Thomas Kilpatrick, of Ninety-eighth-st, and Second-ave, were arrested, after a vigorous chase through tenements and over back fences, by Officers Casey and Gath. In the Harlem Police Court yesterday, the prisoners were remanded for examination by Justice Waite, Garethy was also held in $500 bail for trial, for his assauct upon the baker.

With the apple crop, as with the crop of candidates for offices, every other year is a big one, according to tradition. This year, however, which should be the heavy bearing one for the apple orchards, is an exception; the trees having, so to speak, thrown over their time-honored custom of being unusually productive in alternate years. Some of the prominent apple dealers in this city, with whom a likibunk reporter talked recently, say that the crop will not equal that of last year in this country. Others think that the extra good yield in the West will make it slightly exceed that of last year, though not nearly equal to the product of two years ago. When the market becomes fairly settled and cold weather sets in, the price of talk kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $4 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range from $3 10 $4 a kind of fruit bids fair to range fruit bids fair to barrel, if it does not exceed that. The apple crois to Great Britain is light, and a large quantity of fruit has already been sent from this port to Liverpool and other cities. In one week recently 23,000 barrels were exported. This number exceeded that pool and other cities. If, one week recently 2,000 barrels were exported. This number exceeded that of the corresponding week last year. The foreign market fluctuates a great deal, however, as shippers frequently find to their sorrow. Recently apples were selling to Liverpool at 20 and 22 shillings per barrel, and in a few days they dropped to 12 and 14 shillings. The cost of shipping and selling is about $1 per barrel, which in one case allowed a good proit and in the other caused a loss. It may be mentioned as a custom that does not prevail in the business in this city that the English commission merchants auction off the apples by samples of each lot. In former years Greenings, Baldwins and Newtown plopins have formed a large share of the varieties exported. This season the English dealers are particularly anxions for fine table varities like the Ben Davis and Winesap. Such fruit sells at from $3 50 to $4, while ordinary kinds can be bought at from $2 to $3.

while ordinary kinds can be bought at from $2.65 $3.

Another factor in addition to ine export trade win operate to keep the price of apples up, and that is the demand for drying. Dryers depend more or less on curing an extra large amount in the heavy-bearing years. To keep up the supply of dried apples, the demand for which increases each year, the dryets will use a large part of the crop. The large houses have already set their evaporators at work in the fruit sections of the West, which have been unusually favored this year. Mr. Heard, a leading commission merchant, gave it as his opinion that, to take the country through the apple crop would be a fair one, though not hear that of 1880. leading commission merchant, gave it as his opinion that, to take the country through, the apple crop would be a fair one, though not bear that of 1880.

"The apple-growing counties in this State like Wayne and Niagara," said be, "and others in that region where they grow great quantities of apples, have a very light crof, for some reason that I do not know. Along the river, however, the yield is very fair, and back of Albany the frunt is quite plenty and of good quality. The New-Jersey orchards have also done well. The failure in this State is partly compensated by the good crop in kansas, Missouri and Ohio, where the young orchards are now producing excellent fruit, the best that comes to market this season. There is no finer fruit region in the country than that along the Missouri River from St. Louis to St. Joseph. One result of the good crop out West will be to stop shinments from this city to Southern cities. The apples can be sent from St. Louis to St. Joseph. One result of the good crop out West will be to stop shinments from this city to Southern cities. The apples can be sent from St. Louis so much cheaper to New-Orleans, Angusta, Savannah, and other Southern places, that with the apples in the West to start with, New York dealers will not be able to compette. It seems impossible to corner this market on produce now. The country is so large that after you have made all your calculations some portion of it will pop up with a good supply of which you never dreamed.

Austin Kimball, another merchant, was found by the reporter on the freight pier at the foot of Earclay-st. He was superintending the unloading of a car of apples. The pier contained hundreds of barrels, the was superintending the unloading of a car of apples. The pier contained hundreds of bairels, labelled Baldwin, Greening, Spy, Spitzenberg, Ben Ibavis, Snow, Swaar and other tempting names, which were emphasized by the finity odor which escaped from the packages. TELEPHONE WIRES IN THE STREETS.

In the suit brought in the name of the people against the Metropolitan Telephone and Telegraph Company to restrain it by injunction from erecting or maintaining telegraph poles and wires in West Twenty first. Justice Lawrence yesterday denied the motion to dismiss the complaint which was made last week at the close of the evidence for the plaintiff. The suit, the judge said, was one in which the plaintiff might, if it established its case, recover both equitable recief by way of injunction and legal relief by way of damages. It was not obliged to proceed by indictment for a nuisance. On the part of the company yesterday evidence was offered to show that the poles and when were in no way objectionable, and that they did not interfere with the free use of the street for all public purposes. Even in case of fire they were no obstruction to the Fire Department in the performance of its duties. In short, the system of stretching wires through the air supported by poles was declared the best system that could be devised for all purposes of beauty and utility. On the other hand, the system of laying the wire underground was objectionable in many respects. In the first place, it was a system which had not yet been perfected in this country. If the underground system in use for the telephone line between Newark and Jersey City were adopted for New-York, the cellars of the whole city would stand in constant dancer of being flooded with nasty oil. If a puncture sheald be made by accident or by some malicious person in one of the pipes through which the wires were run, the oil contained in them would burst forth, flood the cellars and stop the whole telegraph business of the city. One witness testified that the underground will be the ween Newark and Jersey City did not work as well as the lines conduced through the air. TELEPHONE WIRES IN THE STREETS.

The trial of the action begun by Peter Mitchell against F. P. Lowrey to recover $3,000 as damages for the loss of his borse and buggy, eaused by a collision in Fifth-ave., through the alleged negligence of Lowrey, was concluded vester-day, and the jury ught in a verdict for Mr. Mitchell for $500.

Margarette Sommer, a harp-player, recovered yestering a verdiet for $271 against Mosers. Amberg and Hermann as damages for an alleged breach of contract. She was engaged by the defendants to play the harp last season at the Tualia Theatre and was discharged before the expiration of the contract. The case was tried before Chief Judge Duly, in the Court of Common Pleas.

Allen and Tunis Cooper, initions, feeches, presented a petition to surrogate Rollins for the revocation of the probate of the will of their father. Tunismound and was made undue influence at the time of the excention of the will. Mr. Cooper died on April 28 1881, and the will bears date April 14, 1881. He devised all his property to his wife during life, and after the relation to his children. The case has been sent to a referee to take testimony in regard to the allegations in the petition.

Marguerite Selvi, an actress, yesterday in the Cont of Common Pleas, before Chief Judge Dalv and a jury, recovered a versiet for $1.000 against Lewis and Alice Harrison, commonly known as "the Harrisons," as damages for an alleged branch of contract. The planniff sileged that the detendants had engaged her to sing tenor parts for a season of thirty weeks. She sang as agreed for a time, when she was told that her contract was at me and. The defence was that Miss Selvi was not able to sing the parts required of her in a properly artistic magner.

Every little Ent in which is been alive is a little Liberal or Conservation."

Is a little Liberal or Conservator."

Mr. Grossmith's principal song in "Perola" is entitled "The Highly since epition Chancellor." It describes how the Lord Caancelor becomes worn out with its exertions to gain his own permission to marry his ward; and he has a dream, the details of which are fold in a string of numerous word, written by Mr. Gilbert specially to salt Mr. Grossmith's peculiar style. Another good song in the place is "Allie Boot," intruded to Mr. Leiy. It commences "Spurn not the lighly born," and declares that "hearts can beat as true in Belgrave-square as in the reven Dails." Its lopsy-tarvical into is characterische of the soften.

DR. STORRS AND THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: My attention has been cailed to a notice in your issue of the 21st inst. of my resignation here in order to enter another field of laber. Inadvertently your correspondent has fellen into error when he says that I 'found the society with a debt of nearly $50,000." There have been times in the history of the society when its indebtedness to the officers and missioneries has been large-reaching nearly $40,000 in one instance. But this was not the state of affairs when I entered the office in 1872. It had then no debt.

I beg leave to ask you to publish this note in justice to the honored men whose wisdom and energy had been entrying the society forward, with some of whom it has been my privilege to be associated, and into whose common success it was my good fortune to enter. Very truly yours.
